

FRIDAY APRIL 16TH SEMINAR SCHEDULE & DESCRIPTIONS

Time	Room 2	Room 3	Room 4	Room 5
2:30PM	Partner Your Church with Missionaries Allan McGuirl (Rev), Galcom International	You Are Richer Than You Think Marlowe Janke, Men for Missions International	Birth of a Church Dan Collison, Toronto Church Planting	The Forgotten Element in Evangelism Kai Mark (Dr. Rev.), Unionville Oasis
4:00PM	Apologetics: Tools for Defending the Christian Faith Tony Costa (Rev), Tony Costa Christian Apologetics	Reaching the Nations through International Students Colleen Stevens, International Student Ministries Canada	7 Benchmarks of Effective STM Teams Brent Davis, Samaritan's Purse Canada	Muslims in the Media vs. in the Neighbourhood Douglas Bennett, Frontiers

2:30PM

(Room2)

Partner Your Church with Missionaries

Around the world God is moving through His people. Learn how to link your church's passion with a Missionary or people group using Christian Radio and short term mission trips. (Short-term Missions)

Allan McGuirl (Rev.)

Allan has been serving God as Pastor and Missions Agency Director for over 30 years. He has travelled around the world equipping Missionaries with radio equipment to reach the unreached, mobilizing the church to fulfill the Great Commission.

(Room 3)

You Are Richer Than You Think

We have a short window of opportunity to make our life count, to influence the influencers to leave a legacy that will last forever. We will look at biblical principles of investing our treasures and see how other believers changed the world for eternity. (Leadership)

FRIDAY APRIL 16TH SEMINAR SCHEDULE & DESCRIPTIONS

Marlowe Janke

Marlowe is a businessman and also serves as National Director of Men for Missions Canada, a short term mission organization with OMS International.

(Room 4)

Birth of a Church

The changing face of church planting in the GTA; do we need more churches or different churches? This seminar has great information for churches and individuals who are considering the launch of a new congregation. (Equipping)

Dan Collison

Dan has been involved in leading three church plants and has been a part of regional church planting efforts since 2002. He is also active as a coach for church planters and for Natural Church Development.

(Room 5)

The Forgotten Element in Evangelism

We have been effective in leading people to Jesus but not in making Christ committed disciples. This seminar will challenge those who are passionate about making disciples of all nations today. (Equipping)

Kai Mark (Dr. Rev.)

Kai is the founding pastor of Unionville Oasis in Markham. He is the author of two books and has taught pre-discipleship to many pastors and leaders in North America, India and Uruguay. Kai was one of the earlier organizers of MFT and is passionate about evangelism and missions.

4:00PM

(Room 2)

Apologetics: Tools for Defending the Christian Faith

This seminar is dedicated to the defense of the Christian faith and aims to equip Christians with the tools to defend their faith in a coherent and intelligent manner by providing answers to hard questions regarding Biblical Christianity. (Equipping)

Tony Costa (Rev.)

Tony holds an M.A. in Religious Studies from U of T; he is currently working on his PhD in New Testament studies and has been involved in the ministry of apologetics for over 25 years.

FRIDAY APRIL 16TH SEMINAR SCHEDULE & DESCRIPTIONS

(Room 3)

Reaching the Nations through International Students

Toronto is home to thousands of international students. We have an opportunity to reach them and their nations! Learn how a carefully planned outreach of hospitality to these students can reap incredible rewards for the Kingdom of God. (Urban Outreach)

Colleen Stevens

Colleen and her team of international students will present this seminar.

(Room 4)

7 Benchmarks of Effective STM Teams

What does it take to offer a life-changing international experience while advancing the Kingdom of God? Learn how your church/group can engage in international missions effectively. (Short-term Missions)

Brent Davis

Trained at Moody Bible Institute, Brent served as a pastor at Bromley Rd Baptist in Ottawa before joining Samaritan's Purse where he currently coordinates short term teams. He has a passion for seeing Canadian churches engage the world in practical and redemptive ways.

(Room 5)

Muslims in the Media vs. in the Neighbourhood

Are Muslims all terrorists? Let's break that stereotype and discuss how we need to show God's love to the souls trapped in Islam, within Canada and in their homelands globally. (Global Outreach)

Douglas Bennett

Douglas grew up in Ohio, and met Muslims while at college, which began his life calling. He served in the Arab Gulf countries for eight years on teams with Frontiers, working as an architect, then ESL teacher. Then in 1997 he settled in Dearborn, Michigan, with its huge Arab Muslim community.